Guitar/Keyboard Vocalist

I began my musical career back in the 1970's playing in local bands around Wollongong NSW. In the 1980's I played on board cruise ships "Fairstar" and "Achille Lauro".

In the 1990's I moved to Logan Village (Qld) and performed at various clubs and pubs. I had residencies at "The Old Courthouse Restaurant" & "The Sands Hotel" in Cleveland as well as "Greenbank RSL" in Browns Plains. In 1996 I performed on the ship "Leisure World" (twice) that was based in Singapore. In 1998 I performed at "Sails in the Desert" at Uluru, with a performance for Elle McPherson. In 1999 I performed in Papua New Guinea for "Oktedi Mining Group".

In January of 2000 I became gravely ill, spending 6 months in hospital (6 weeks in ICU).

This ended my professional musical career. For many years I was unable to sing or play.

In 2020 I moved into "Opal by Living Gems" in Logan Village and started to teach a singing group "Strike a Chord". I was a professionally trained singer (Tenor). With practice every week I found not only were my student's voices improving, but so was mine!

I have performed many times in our village and am now looking for some paid work.
